

❖I STRENGTH

Strength is in control, using her force effortlessly. When you pull this card, prepare to use your strengths in a situation. While it can show that you are in a position of strength, it can also show that this strength will be tested. If it appears with other cards that have animals on them, think about how the animals transform from one card to the next and what that could be saying about how the situation will progress.